

Do I have to move out while the improvements are being performed?

Answer: You will not need to move out as the utilities are not disconnected and there is little or no jacking to the home.